

Dr. Amal Harsha De Silva

Congress Chair WACEM 2017

Deputy Director General (Medical Services), Ministry of Health, 2016 March- Present

- Leadership on policy development, supporting financing and HR management
- Planned for investments and care plans
- Negotiation with Trade unions on appointments and transfers
- Transfer of Grade Medical Officers, administrative and institutional work.
- Post internship appointments and other matters.
- Co-ordination of the work of the programmes funded by the World Health Organization and other foreign funds and conducted under the Medical Service Division.
- Work relevant to the Eye Care Programme and work relevant to the Programme on ear, nose and throat care.
- Private Health Care Sector – Problems and related matters.
- Problems in Hospitals – All work related to service and administration in discussion with the Deputy Director General (Medical Services) I, providing technical assistance to the institutions under the line Ministry and other hospitals.
- In-charge for Accident & Emergency Care project
- In-charge for Sports Medicine project

University bachelor's degree:

Bachelor in Medical Science (MBBS), University of Peradeniyaw with Honours in the second and final examinations (1979-1984)

Postgraduate education:

(a) PG Diploma in Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine (UK)

(b) MSc in Health Policy and Financing, London School of Economics and Political Science (UK)

(c) MSc in Medical Administration, Postgraduate Institute of Medicine, University of Colombo

(d) MD in Medical Administration (Hons.), Postgraduate Institute of Medicine, University of Colombo with Honors

Dr. Samiddhi Samarakoon, MBBS, Msc, MD, MBA
Director Accident & Orthopedic Services and Deputy Director of National Hospital Sri Lanka
Chief coordinator, Accident & Emergency project Ministry of Health Sri Lanka

Prof. Aruna Munasinghe,
MBBS (Colombo),MD, FRCP (Edin), FACP (USA), FCCM (USA), Diploma in Artificial Ventilation (Paris),
FRCEM (UK)

He is one of the key figures in Sri Lanka in developing critical care and emergency medicine formal education through the post graduate institute of medicine, university of Colombo. He is the first in charge of the ETU at the Sri Lanka Victoria Emergency and trauma care center. Currently he is the advisor to the accident and emergency project of the ministry of Sri Lanka, and recently appointed as the master trainer of the national simulation center, Ministry of Health. He is a presidential award winner for research and the founder president of the Critical Care Forum of Sri Lanka (www.ccfsl.info). He has many publications in reputed journals and the executive editor of the "Sri Lankan Hospitalist". He is the first person in the world who described "prinso poisoning" a (toxi ditergent) .Considering his outstanding background he was appointed as a Visiting Professor of Emergency Medicine at the IGIMS, Patna, India