"Proclaiming and Promoting Academic Leadership"

From the Desk of Editor

Dear friends and colleagues,

It is always my pleasure to communicate through this INDUSEM official mouthpiece and keep you all updated of the recent events and success stories of INDUSEM.

INDUSEM 2013 our national event was a great success at Trissur with a flavor of Gods own country. It was well attended by the medical and paramedical fraternity from our nation. We always set a trend of scaling new heights in the field of Emergency Medicine we introduced a Quality document for Emergency Medicine which was released by the Director NABH. This document paves the way for a systemic protocol based approach with a QC monitored patient care in the Emergency Department. The Academic wing ACEE/ACEN introduced new members to the council. The EMCORD drew a road map for a standardized academic training model across all medical schools in India. The other regional events were organized across the nation with a specific training modules.

We move from Trissur to Lucknow for our INDUSEM 2014 to be held under the auspice of King George Medical University and it is a history that a medical event being co hosted by a management institution i.e. Indian Institute of Management Lucknow, hence the theme is "Money, Management and ManPower".

We the INDUSEM as a habit of sharing knowledge, I invite you all to share any awards, skill gained, scientific programme conducted in your organization through TEAMS.

We will be honored to proclaim and promote your Leadership via TEAMS.

JAIHIND.

INDUS-EM 2013

The 3rd Annual Meeting of Indian Network of Critical Illness and Injury Translational Trial Experts (INCIITTE) was held on 24th October 2013 as a part of the Pre-Summit where innumerable Research Ideas were discussed and a few were selected for Multi-center Research Trials specifically in the field of point of care biomarkers.

Specific areas of Academic Development in Simulation Education and Sonology and focus on Trauma Critical Care training was an important part of the discussion in the summit.

The Third Fellowship Convocation of the Academic College of Emergency Experts in India (ACEE-INDIA) and the Academy for Clinical Emergency Nursing in India (ACEN-INDIA) was held during the Summit.

The second meeting of the Emergency Medical Council of Residency Departments in India (EMCORD-INDIA) was held at the summit. All MCI Recognized MD-EM Residency Departments and Faculty were a part of EMCORD. Resident and faculty had in depth discussions on strategies to improve team work and forge academics.

INDUS-EM 2013 was held over 5 Days and attended by 2800 Delegates.
This was a year when organizations began to rewrite a progressive strategy focused on improvising the work done in the last decade as INDUS stepped into its decennial year.
